Description of School

Columbia College Chicago is an arts and media-focused liberal arts college dedicated to rigorous academics, hands-on learning, collaboration and career preparation. We offer an inclusive learning environment where students are encouraged to take creative risks, develop an authentic voice and author the culture of their time. Our award-winning faculty of working professionals and our location in Chicago--which provides access to an array of internship and professional experiences--prepare graduates for a creative career, wherever their interests and abilities take them.
