Description of School

Loyola University New Orleans is a small, Jesuit university located in uptown New Orleans. We are an institution which welcomes students of all faiths. We have 60 undergraduate degrees with an accredited College of Music and Fine Arts, recognized College of Business and a College of Arts and Sciences which includes strong science and noted mass communications programs. Our student-faculty ratio is 10:1. We have division I athletics and numerous abroad opportunities. We offer generous scholarship which require no separate scholarship application.
