Description of School

Founded in 1809, Miami University is a public university based in the quintessential college town of Oxford, Ohio. Miami is a liberal arts college named after the Miami Native American tribe that used to live in the area. Miami has an undergraduate liberal arts focus offering roughly 100 academic majors and 90 minors. Students are required to live on campus the first 2 years and are involved in over 500 student activities. Research opportunities, study abroad opportunities, and internships are very prevalent.
