Description of School

Missouri Western is the Applied Learning University in Missouri. MWSU has a more liberal approach to admission of students. We are located about an hour north of Kansas City, MO, in a residential area of St. Joseph. It is a quiet and safe campus. The top majors on campus are anything science related, business, education, criminal justice and psychology. Unique majors are Wildlife and Conservation Management, Digital Animation, Supply Chain Management and Population Health. MWSU is a NCAA Division II athletic school which just added track and field and cross country in the fall of 2017.
