Description of School

Syracuse is a mid-sized, private, research university in the middle of New York State - about 4 hours from New York City. We have strong programs in communications, architecture, drama, business, sports management, design, and a strong liberal arts core (200 majors and 100 minors!). With an alumni network of over 250,000, joining the Orange family lasts long after graduation, and the feeling of school spirit exudes throughout campus and beyond. Perhaps this is never felt more strongly than in the Carrier Dome, our on-campus athletic facility that seats 50,000 for football and 35,000 for basketball, and houses many of our 21 D1 athletics. Come join us!
