Description of School

USC is a large, private research University located in the heart of Los Angeles, on a beautiful, park-like, residential campus. We offer over 100 majors in liberal arts, as well as majors in 19 professional schools including Business, Engineering, Journalism, Public Policy, and 6 schools of art: Architecture, Cinematic Arts, Dramatic Arts, Dance, Art & Design, and Music. Students are encouraged to combine areas of interest, or major and minor, often in disparate areas. We offer need-based financial assistance as well as merit-based scholarships, with 21% of the entering freshman class of 2016 receiving a merit-based scholarship from USC.
