Description of School

We are a small, private, liberal arts school situated quaintly on the Chesapeake Bay and only 90 min from metropolitan Baltimore, Washington D.C. and Philadelphia. With a 12:1 student to faculty ratio and total undergrad population of right around 1500 students, we value intimate learning experiences. We specialize in environment and society, as our location gives students great access to hands on opportunities with the outdoors, creative writing and english, as well as, history and political science.
