Description of School

Xavier University is a private, Jesuit-Catholic University in Cincinnati, Ohio. With an average class size of 20 students and an 11:1 student to faculty ratio, Xavier benefits from being a great combination of a smaller size school paired with big school resources. Students enjoy being at a Division 1 school while really experiencing the individual and well-rounded focus of a Xavier education, both inside and outside the classroom. Xavier Musketeers pride themselves on the inclusive and flourishing community that you'll feel once you step foot on campus, and we are passionate about the many opportunities and resources that our students find when they come here. Whether students find their niche in leadership roles on campus or experiential learning opportunities in Cincinnati and beyond, a Xavier education prepares our students for life after graduation, as evidenced by our 97% job placement rate within 6 months of graduation.
